

ANTON BAUER

Ice Wine 2013

Grüner Veltliner

Feuersbrunn / Wagram/ Austria

Anton Bauer's ice wine is recommended due to its creamy texture, balanced play of sweet and sour and its aromas of honey blossom to orange zest as a fine accompaniment to duck and goose liver and to creamy desserts but also to mature white-and blue-veined cheese. Floral bouquet, with a hint of walnut, peaches, apricot and honey balanced and toasty fragrances on the palate.

Ice Wine Grüner Veltliner:

This white sweet wine specialty is pressed only when the natural conditions permit. In the autumn the healthy grapes are left hanging on the vine until they freeze in a natural way. This requires that for several hours the temperatures are around minus 8 to minus 10 degrees Celsius (17 - 14 degrees Fahrenheit).

Then the berries are often harvested at night in bitter cold and pressed very slowly while frozen. Vintage 2013 of our ice wine was harvested in January 2014.

The result is a noble, sweet, high-quality wine, with delicate fruitiness and often one can still guess the grape variety from which it was pressed. This Ice-wine is produced from grapes harvested and pressed while still frozen.

The concentrated sugary grape juice flows out as "liquid gold" which is then fermented and aged in 100% new French oak.
