

ANTON BAUER

Grüner Veltliner Rosenberg 2015

Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

Beaming yellow with straw-gold reflexes:
in the nose fine apple tones.

Pear, quince, aroma of dried fruits with an exotic hint, exhibits pleasant spice; on the palate nutty-spicy-peppery, piquant fruit acid, juicy and stimulating; elegant, lively finish.

Serving Suggestion: Serve with simply prepared fish, chicken or pork dishes. Pairs well with a wide range of foods including Asian.

Rosenberg:

It is said that the name goes back to wild roses which grew exuberantly at that place and that "Rosenberg" was introduced during the time of the minstrels (12th - 14th centuries) and characterized by the entourage associated with the poet Conrad von Vuozesprunnen (Feuersbrunn).

The "Rosenberg" vineyard site is one of the best sites in Feuersbrunn. It is situated on one of the highest areas used for wine growing on the Wagram, right below the top of the Hengstberg hill (371 m). In the north, immediately next to the site there is a forest, which on the one hand protects the site against the strong winds blowing from the north-west, and which on the other hand brings about a special micro-climate: In spite of the southern exposure a cool wind blows from the forest even during hot summers, which, compared to other sites, results in stronger temperature variations between day and night. As a consequence, the aroma of the grapes intensifies, the wines become more structured and multi-layered.

This deep loess soil with a certain percentage of clay is perfectly suited for our Grüner Veltliner and Cabernet Sauvignon vines.

Anton Bauer 2015 Rosenberg Grüner Veltliner (Wagram)

91 Points Austria $24 Hints of earth and yeast deliciously suggest themselves onto the typical green pear notes. They also haunt the palate and give real resonance to the textured palate. This manages to be rounded yet svelte. The finish is lasting and combines pear and herbal notes of sage and savory yeast.
