

likes loess The wine-growing area, Donauland (Danube) was renamed in 2007 to "Wagram". In this area, 6000 acres of vineyards spread over two very different areas: North of the Danube stretches east, then to the Kamptal the actual Wagram, a powerful ground level, about 30 km to the east. South of the Danube, are the small wine villages of the Tulln field, but also the historic wine town of Klosterneuburg on the outskirts of Vienna.

Joe's Rose 2018 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

50% Zweigelt / 25% Grenache / 25% Cabernet Sauvignon
Fresh meadow flowers and an aromatic dry crisp finish.
The absolute summer wine.

Grüner Veltliner Wagram 2018 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

From a wonderful family-owned vineyard in Austria, this is a classic, clean, crisp, dry Grüner Veltliner. Perfect aperitif and summer sipping wine. Some citrus with the typical white pepper finish of an Austrian Grüner Veltliner.

WINEENTHUSIAST 88 Points $12 Green-pear creaminess and lemon make for an inviting nose. The palate is light, dry and juicy, with an easy, refreshing, summery flow. Best Buy

Grüner Veltliner Ried Spiegel 2018 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

Ried Spiegel is one of the highest lying vineyard sites in Feuersbrunn. The name "Spiegel" goes back to the Old High German word "Spekulare" meaning "furthest view". The mixture of loess and red tertiary gravel combined with the nearby forest is ideal for cultivating fresh Veltliner's with mineral spiciness which never appear too opulent and heavy.

Grüner Veltliner Katharina 2018 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

The character of this Grüner Veltliner is influenced mainly by the loess soil. It is a blend of wines from different stages of the harvest, producing a wine with a lot of freshness, typical characteristics of this variety and a powerful finish. A Veltliner with aromas of tropical fruits and citrus tones.

WINEENTHUSIAST 90 Points $22 Creamy green-pear notes are enticing on the subtle nose. The palate then adds a slightly peppery texture and more lemon pithiness. This is light, dry and wonderfully zesty.

Riesling Feuersbrunn 2018 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

This is a wonderful dry Riesling from a family-owned estate's terraced vineyards over Feuersbrunn, Austria. Very ripe with lots of stone fruit aromas, full-bodied with a great balance of fruit and acidity. Great with white meat and fish dishes, light pastas, appetizers WINEENTHUSIAST 90 Points $19 Ripe pear on the nose has a lovely lemon edge. The palate is bright and the juiciness of pear and apple is underlined by the ripe, mild lemon freshness. This is a very easy, summery, refreshing and dry wine.

Riesling Ried Losling 2017 Feuersbrunn / Wagram/Austria

RIESLING cultivated from the Losling vineyard, which is a terraced site right next to Spiegel with soils consisting of red tertiary gravel. This wine shows mature stone fruit aromas and a powerful body. Great aging potential and despite high maturity it has a pleasant acidity structure and a beautiful long finish
