

HILL 1 2013

dense & substantial

A cuvée made of 30% Zweigelt, 30% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon and 10% Blaufränkisch. Intensive ruby red with a deep dark core. A Complex and fruity and very strong on the palate The tannin is mature and covered perfectly by the dense structure. Very long finale and exceptionally good ageing potential. 20 months in new barrique casks.

10 days cold maceration, 4 weeks maceration, 20 months vinified in new oak barrels on the lees

DETAILS

VINIFICATION: dry

ALCOHOL: 14,5 %

SERVING TEMPERATURE: 18° - 20°C

ACIDITY: 4,8 g/l

RESIDUAL SUGAR: 1,0 g/l

RECOMMENDED WITH: Steaks, mature cheese or on its own with a cigar

BEARING POTENTIAL: 20 Years