Leo Hillinger Pinot Gris 2019

This wine smells: Anjou pear, mandarin orange, white button mushroom, lots of stony minerality, and a lot of lemon zest combine for a really, complex, interesting nose. Taking a sip, it is richer and rounder than it smells, with lots of the savory and mineral notes coming through, and lots of pear. This is very much a food wine with all this body and flavor. Big yum.
