

Pinot Noir Eveline 2018

vineyard name: Altenberg grape: 100% Pinot Noir average age of wines: 25 years

the vineyard

100% Organic treatment, 7.200 vines per ha, 4.500 kg/ha yield, green harvest in August (25%), harvest by hand in first week of October

wine production

100% destemmed, 20% saignée, temperature controlled spontaneous fermentation with natural yeasts for 4 – 5 weeks at 25°C, 50% stainless steel, 25% second fill barrique barrels and 25% 3.000-liter oak vat, for 9 months, bottling alcoholic content: 13.5% total acidity: 5.6 g/l potential: ready to drink now, will hold on for another 4 years tasting notes: ELEGANCE, medium garnet color with a fruity nose of strawberries underlined by earthy and spicy notes, and reminiscent of fine wood. A supple tannin structure and gamey texture complements the palate for real pleasure. A long finish with a nice play of all components leaving the wish to have a second sip immediately.

food pairing

mature cheese, mushrooms, pork, poultry, and fish.....

A nose of strawberries, raspberries and floral notes such as violets. On the palate, the wine is medium-bodied. Intense notes of herbs and pureed dark berries with soft tannins, a juicy ripeness and an elegant, long finish.
