

WINEENTHUSIAST 94
POINTS

Steindorfer 2015 Cuvée Klaus Beerenauslese Pinot Blanc (Burgenland)

Earthy botrytis and a touch of maple syrup spice inform the lusciously rich, honeyed aromas. A spirity strength tingles on the nose. The palate streams across the tongue in generous sweetness, while spirit and spiky acidity counter this and leave you with a very lasting impression of barley sugar. Lemon and caramel are the chief markers that echo long after the last sip.
