

TEGERNSEERHOF

WEINGUT MITTELBACH · WACHAU - AUSTRIA

THE NAME IS FROM GERMANY (BAVARIA), THE WINE FROM WACHAU

The historical roots of Tegernseerhof go back over 1000 years. Holy Roman Emperor Henry II granted the Benedictine monastery of Tegernsee two oxgangs of land in Wachau. In 1176, Tegernseerhof was built and named after its owner.

Today, Tegernseerhof is owned by the Mittelbach family. The winery has been in their possession for five generations. The name has been preserved, like the ancient knowledge of viticulture, passed on from one generation to the next. The Tegernseerhof vineyards are located on the best slopes of the Wachau region. They are characterized by steep terraces of primary rock, with optimal exposure to sun and wind.

2015 RIESLING KELLERBERG SMARAGD®

CHARACTERISTICS:

Gfoehler Gneis is the geological foundation here, the varying expositions of the Kellerberg are predominantly of a south exposition, but some plots have a southeast aspect and the terraces that round the bend toward Flicken valley face directly east. The Kellerberg is Dürnstein's steep landmark mountain. The vines root deeply into the light colored Gfoehler Gneis which consists mainly of feldspar and quartz covered by sandy loess soil in some parts of Kellerberg. The strong Pannonian climate influence on Kellerberg yields full-bodied and complex, yet impressively mineral wines.

MY NOTES:

Our Estate is a member of the Vinea Wachau, therefore the vinification follows the strict regulations of the "Codex Wachau".
